The Honorable Donald J. Trump
President of the United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, D.C. 20500

Mr. President:

The guidance you provided to the Secretary of State clearly establishes that every effort by the United States must align with three fundamental objectives:

- To make the United States more secure
- To make the United States stronger
- To make the United States more prosperous

In line with these objectives, we respectfully present a proposal that advances the goals of security, strength, and prosperity for the United States—without requiring any financial expenditure or the deployment of American personnel. We humbly request just a few minutes of your valuable time to receive a commission from the Republican Party of Cuba.

We, as individuals, are not important, but we firmly believe that the 9,748,532 citizens living on the island of Cuba are—and perhaps their freedom and future depend on this meeting.

We are confident that what can emerge from this conversation will be both meaningful and beneficial for both our nations. We are fighting for a government in Cuba that puts Cuba first, just as you have put the United States first.

We share fundamental values: the right to life, liberty, and private property.

With the greatest respect and consideration, we await your response.

In God We Trust,

Sincerely,

Ibrahim Bosch
President
Republican Party of Cuba
