

INVITATION: PRESS CONFERENCE

#Together4Freedom Alliance supports Ukrainians in their struggle for freedom.

The coordinators of #TogetherForFreedom invite the Media to the official presentation of the agenda of activities in favor of Ukraine, organized in Belgium next week, in particular, the "Women with Ukraine" Demonstration, this March 8.

During the conference, to be held in the Meeting Room of the Konrad Adenauer Foundation in Brussels, the representatives of the Associations that make up this international Alliance will ratify their support for the Ukrainian government's requests to the European Union and NATO, while officially expressing their condemnation of Russia's actions in Ukraine and in the countries of origin of the communities they represent.

Marta Barandiy, President of the Association Promote Ukraine, will read an update on the situation in Ukraine and present the new application designed for mobile devices that provides immediate information on planned actions in Belgium in support of the Ukrainian people.
